

"millions now living will never die"

—Judge Rutherford

In a Free Lecture in Poli's Theater tomorrow afternoon it will be conclusively proved by many Biblical Prophecies which have been fulfilled during the past four years, and from many others still in course of fulfillment, that thousands now living in this city will never die.

"In this instance do not deceive yourself into believing that 'where ignorance is bliss 'tis folly to be wise,' because life everlasting on this earth as a perfect human being will depend upon the individual knowledge and understanding of, and acquiescence in, the rules of conduct that are to govern the world in its reconstruction now in progress and ever after."

In a startling and comforting lecture, "Millions Now Living Will Never Die," Judge Rutherford offers a reasonable and satisfying solution of the many questions raised by the conflicting claims of orthodox creeds, Sir Oliver Lodge, Sir Conan Doyle, Christian Science practitioners and the various faith-healing sects. No matter what your present idea on this great question may be, you should hear

Judge Rutherford has recently returned from Palestine and Egypt, where he went last summer to make a personal investigation of conditions relating to fulfilled prophecy, particularly the return of the Jews. The rebuilding of Palestine by the Jews is agitating the entire thinking world.

Judge Rutherford comes with a fund of first-hand information on this subject, which is of greatest interest to both Christian and Jew. His investigation included present conditions of distress and social unrest in the European countries, adding strength to his declaration that millions now living will never die.

Intense interest in this lecture has been manifested in the greatest cities of the world. At the New York Hippodrome, 10,000 were turned away; while at the London Royal Albert Hall, with a capacity of 13,000, more than 15,000 jammed the doors, unable to gain admittance. No halls in Europe were found adequate for the multitudes that came to hear.

The Invitation Committee remind you—go early and do not miss this lecture.

WHERE ARE THE DEAD?

Can the Living Talk With the Dead?

Statement by Judge Rutherford

Can the living talk with the dead? Sir Conan Doyle, his colleagues, many distinguished clergymen and others, answer yes. The twenty-four prophets of God, the Lord Jesus and His twelve Apostles, according to the inspired testimony set forth in the Bible, answer emphatically No.

Sir Conan Doyle and his colleagues say the soul is immortal—there is no death; hence the dead are able to communicate with the living. Satan said the same thing; and Jesus said Satan is a liar and that this statement was the beginning of lies (John 8:44). Satan is the arch-enemy of the human race. Jesus is the Savior of the world, and through Him alone can man get life everlasting. Which one will you believe?

Sir Conan Doyle and his colleagues claim that they hear voices, receive automatic writings through ouija boards, table tipping, etc., and that these emanate from some unseen power. This we do not dispute. The Bible explains that this power is not exercised by the spirits of dead men, but by demons—fallen angels or foul spirits—who were disobedient in Noah's day and whom God restrained in the darkness around the earth. (See 2 Peter 2:4; 1 Peter 3:18-20; Judges 6.) These demons have exercised their power since the time of the flood until the present time through the instrumentality of mediums. The day of their judgment is now here; hence they exercise greater power and are taking advantage of a grief-stricken world to aid Satan in carrying on his first lie—"There is no death."

Sir Conan Doyle and many distinguished clergymen have been and are being deceived by the demons, because they believe and teach the doctrine of immortality of the soul, which is supported by nothing except Satan's falsehood. (Genesis 3:4.) Immortality is promised as a great reward to those who faithfully follow Jesus even unto death. (1 Corinthians 15:51-53.) The dead are unconscious; they know not anything; they cannot think, smell, hear, speak or do anything whatsoever. (See Psalm 6:5; 115:17; 146:4; Ecclesiastes 9:15-10.) This being true, it would be impossible for them to communicate with the living.

Nothing is more plainly taught in the Scriptures than the resurrection of the dead—i. e., that in due time all the dead shall be awakened and given a trial for life. Such positively disproves that the dead are conscious and are able to communicate with the living, because the resurrection of the world has yet to come.

These so-called communications from the dead are in no wise beneficial to man. The messages are never comforting or uplifting, but on the contrary, they are often vicious and vile and lead men into crime. Great numbers of men are being made insane by the influence of these demons. Satan and the other demons are thus blinding and defrauding mankind in order to turn their minds away from the great blessings God has in store for them.

This so-called science of communicating with the dead is nothing but demonism, or spiritism, and is a menace to the welfare of mankind, the overwhelming proof of which is set forth in my new book, "Talking With the Dead."

This lecture has comforted multitudes bereaved by the world war, epidemics, and attending sorrows. So great has been the demand that it has been amplified and published in book form, including 500 Scriptural proof texts. "I want the statement, 'Millions Now Living Will Never Die,' to be taken literally, as it is, in the light of recently fulfilled prophecy, a provable Biblical proposition."
